

Irene Luvaul has been associated with Galilee Community Development Corporation for approximately 6 years, most of that time as a member of the board. She has served twice as treasurer. She has over 38 years' experience in the legal field as a real estate and corporate paralegal and has an educational background in accounting with a B.A. in Human Resources. She has also attended the United Way Nonprofit Board Development course. As a result of that experience and education she is able to assist GCDC as a member of the board and as a paralegal working with its attorneys on title work and legal documentation for the properties upon which it builds homes.
