

Vickie Boulden has been a member of the Galilee Board of Directors for 6 months. She is a native of Monroe, Louisiana and was born on December 28th to the parents of the late Warren H. Jordan who passed a couple of years ago and the late Birdia Alexander Jordan. She is from a close knit family and has four sisters and one brother. She graduated from Richwood High School and then went on to graduate from Southern University A & M College in Baton Rouge, Louisiana where she received her Bachelor of Arts Degree in Liberal Studies. She married and spent the next few years traveling with her military husband and lived in Stuttgart, Germany. She has held Executive Management positions in retail management with three large retail companies, Foley's, Mervyn's and Bloomingdales. She later went to school at Southwest School of Real Estate in San Angelo and obtained her real estate license and is currently working at Coldwell Banker as a Realtor. During her career, she has received numerous awards and accolades for her outstanding accomplishments. She is very active in her son's academic and athletic pursuits and in her church and the San Angelo Community. She has served in many capacities in her church such as Sunday school teacher, bible study, church clerk, church secretary, choir member, deaconess president, newsletter publisher and many others. She has volunteered her time and service to organizations such as the Meals for the Elderly and the Wesley United Soup Kitchen. She is a member of the Board of Directors for two non-profit organizations, the Adult Enrichment Center (AEC) and Galilee Community Development Corporation (GCDC) and is on the executive committee for her local chapter of the NAACP. She is also a member and secretary for both Le Coterie Society and the Cosmopolitan Club of San Angelo. Vickie is also a member of the National Association of Realtors (NAR) and the San Angelo Association of Realtors (SAAR). Within the local board, she has served on the hospitality committee and is currently a member of the education and nominating committees. She is a leader with the West Texas Organizing Strategy (WTOS) in San Angelo. In 2006, she was named "Woman of the Year" at her church during their annual women's day program and she received the "Rookie of the Year" award from Coldwell Banker in 2007. She is very instrumental in planning her church's vacation bible school (VBS) program each year. She writes poetry and has been working on her first novel and hopes to one day become a published author. No matter what she does in life, she is always cheered on by two of her biggest fans; her loving husband, Willie and their wonderful son, Jordan.
